- B. In the event a member withdraws from or terminates membership in the Agreement, the Board of Directors shall pay to the withdrawing or terminating member its pro rata share of the total tangible assets less obligations. A withdrawing or terminating member's pro rata share is defined as the total contributions paid by the member divided by the total contributions paid by all members from the inception of Authority to the date of the member's withdrawal or termination.
- C. The Board of Directors shall determine whether the obligation to pay a member's pro rata share shall be discharged through a transfer of personal property or through a payment of funds. If requested in writing by the members, and if determined by the Board of Directors to be feasible and equitable, the member's pro rata share shall be discharged by returning to the member the same or similar personal property initially owned by the member and conveyed to the Authority in satisfaction of the member's financial obligations. Said transfer or payment shall be made within a reasonable time following withdrawal or termination.

If the terminating member disagrees with the current fair market value of Authority properties and assets as determined by the Board of Directors, the current fair market value of said properties and assets shall be determined by a panel of three disinterested and qualified appraisers, one appraiser to be appointed by the Board of Directors, one appraiser to be appointed by the Board of Trustees of the withdrawing or terminating member, and the two appraisers so appointed to jointly select a third appraiser. The fees for the above appraisers shall be allocated as follows:
 - 1. The Authority shall pay the costs of the appraiser it selects.

Such amendments shall be binding upon all members of the Authority. The effective date of any amendment will be on July 1 following adoption, unless otherwise stated.

ARTICLE XII. SEVERABILITY

Should any portion, term, condition, or provision of these Bylaws be decided by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal or in conflict with any law of the State of California, or be otherwise rendered unenforceable or ineffectual, the validity of the remaining portions, terms, conditions, and provisions shall not be affected thereby, so long as each member concurs.
